Iglesia Católica de San Andrés

The Life of Archbishop Raymond Hunt-hausen reflection talk by Martha Gies.

Welcoming Statement

St. Andrew is a faith community baptized into one body, which honors and celebrates diversity. We welcome and include persons of every color, language, ethnicity, origin, ability, sexual orientation, gender expression, marital status, and life situation.

Misión Parroquial

La Parroquia de San Andrés reconoce que, así como Jesús fue enviado por Dios “para traer la Buena Nueva a los pobres, para anunciar libertad a los cautivos, y a los ciegos nueva luz. Poner en libertad a los oprimidos y proclamar el año de gracia del Señor,” (San Lucas 4:18)

....También es la misión de la Parroquia de San Andrés, el ser presencia visible de Cristo en nuestra comunidad con diversidad de razas y culturas, enraizada en el Evangelio y alimentada por la liturgia, la oración, y la comunidad de fe. Como iglesia, nos comprometemos a trabajar con los pobres, los desamparados y oprimidos, por la liberación de todos; para buscar justicia, compasión, paz en nuestras vidas, en la comunidad y en el mundo entero, y para proclamar y celebrar el amor incondicional de Dios para todos.

Parish Mission

St. Andrew Parish recognizes that, as Jesus Christ was sent by God to “bring the good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives, and to the blind new sight, to set the downtrodden free, to proclaim the Lord’s year of favor,” (Luke 4:18)

....so it is the mission of St. Andrew Parish to be a visible presence of Christ in our culturally and racially diverse neighborhood, rooted in the Gospel and nurtured by liturgy, prayer, and the community of faith. As such we commit ourselves to work with the poor, the powerless, and the oppressed for the liberation of all; to seek justice, compassion, and peace in our lives, community, and world; and to proclaim and celebrate God’s unconditional love for all.

Declaración de bienvenida

La Parroquia de San Andrés es una comunidad bautizada en un cuerpo, que honra y celebra la diversidad. Acogemos a las personas de todos colores, lenguas, razas, orígenes, habilidades, orientación sexual, estado civil y estilos de vida.

Today's Liturgy

By Glenn CJ Byer, MA SLD
The interesting thing about the Scriptures today is how they call us to proclaim the kingdom of God in deeds more than words and in signs more than some royal decree. In these days of contracts and law suits over what is said, it is good to remember that for God what is said matters much less than what is done. God will let us know what the kingdom looks like through actions. This is why the praise that Jesus receives in the Gospel, "he has done all things well." is so important. Can the same be said of us? The Isaiah reading calls us to look and see our God coming to save us through wondrous deeds and those whose lives have been limited will find their senses renewed. The letter of James shows the importance of our deeds even within the liturgy: we are not to treat people differently simply because of their wealth. Rather we are to be welcoming to those who have less material wealth because they have a special place in the kingdom of God.

REMINDER: Please bring non-perishable food, diapers, and toiletry items and drop them in the St. Vincent de Paul barrels in the entryway of the church each Sunday. You may also bring one item and place it in the basket as the gifts are collected.

Today's Readings / Lecturas de hoy

Isaiah 35:4-7a
Psalm 146:6-7, 8-9, 9-10
Praise the Lord, my soul!
James 2:1-5
Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

Liturgia de hoy

Por Glenn CJ Byer, MA SLD
Lo interesante de las Escrituras hoy es cómo nos llaman a proclamar el reino de Dios en obras más que en palabras y en signos más que en algún decreto real. En estos días de contratos y demandas judiciales por lo que se dice, es bueno recordar que para Dios lo que se dice importa mucho menos de lo que se hace. Dios nos dejará saber cómo es el reino a través de acciones. Esta es la razón por la alabanza que Jesús recibe en el Evangelio, "él ha hecho todas las cosas bien". es tan importante ¿Se puede decir lo mismo de nosotros? La lectura de Isaías nos llama a mirar y ver a nuestro Dios viniendo para salvarnos a través de obras maravillosas y aquellos cuyas vidas han sido limitadas encontrarán sus sentidos renovados. La letra de James muestra la importancia de nuestros actos incluso dentro de la liturgia: no debemos tratar a las personas de manera diferente simplemente por su riqueza. Más bien debemos dar la bienvenida a aquellos que tienen menos riqueza material porque tienen un lugar especial en el reino de Dios.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is where the Church welcomes those persons seeking full communion in the Catholic faith through the sacraments of initiation, namely, Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. RCIA is a process of discernment and instruction in which you will be introduced to the beliefs and practices of the Catholic faith. The process will begin on Sunday September 16th. Please join us weekly in the Thea Bowman room from 11:00-Noon.

Liturgy of the Word for Children

Are you called to share the Jesus' message with the next generation of our church?

Our Liturgy of the Word (LOW) for Children program has a long history of engaging the children of our parish in discussions and activities to help them understand and explore our faith. We are actively looking for catechists to lead one age group, once a month. Parents, grandparents, teachers and anyone who feels called to share the message of love and social justice with our youngest community members are encouraged to contact Debbie at debbied@gmail.com or 503-380-6160.

St. Vincent de Paul / St. Andrew Emergency Services

As we begin the new year, our emergency services is looking for people who are willing and able to offer one or two hours a week.

- Specifically we need help assisting shoppers on Thursdays (9- 11 or 11-1)
- We need people to deliver food on Friday morning (around 11, about one hour's time)

If you are willing or have questions, contact Rob Stewart (robystewart@gmail.com) or Joe Condon (jdcvon@gmail.com)

August 2018 Statistics:

20 families (748 individuals) received food from Emergency Services: 14,799 lbs. of food. We partnered with ten families to help with utility bills ($1453.87) and with six families to help with rent ($2094). Total assistance this month: $3547.87. 48 volunteers worked a total of 284 hours in August.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul:

All donations to the St. Andrew Conference of St. Vincent de Paul support those in need in our community. Please write checks to St. Vincent de Paul/St. Andrew to ensure your donation goes to emergency services of our parish.

Ministers of Hospitality

MINISTERS OF HOSPITALITY—USHERS AND GREETERS: Each Sunday the first thing we do as church is to gather. As a Christian community we gather FOR each other. The first ritual we should experience therefore is a ritual of welcome, of courtesy, of hospitality. Just as all Christians are called to read God's Word (not just Lectors), and all are called to minister the Lord's real presence, (not just Ministers of Holy Communion), so all of us (not just ushers and greeters) are called to be ministers of hospitality. And like other ministries, there are special ministers of hospitality. They are very important. Greeters can set the tone of our readiness to experience God more than any other minister. They are usually the first to greet us when we arrive for Eucharist. Their job is to be sure that the church is ready for the community's arrival: pews and worship aids neat and bulletins ready for distribution. They are also there to attend to any emergencies which might occur during the celebration of the Eucharist. On special holydays they can have additional functions such as handing out palms or candles, worship leaflets, or directing processions. St Andrew is blest with men, women, youth and children who serve as greeters but we are still are in need of more folks to participate in this ministry. Call Michael Prendergast (503-281-4429 ext. 2) if you can help.

Zumba Tuesdays 6:30 to 7:30 PM in the Community Center Gym. All are Welcome.
